

Kristianne Egbert

B.S. HFE, CPE

Program Manager – Ergonomics Consulting

ABOUT

Kristianne attained her Bachelor's of Science in Human Factors Engineering from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. Kristianne is a Certified Professional Ergonomist through the Board of Certified Professional Ergonomists.

Kristianne manages the industrial ergonomics service line at Briotix Health from both the project management and technical consulting standpoint. She has provided ergonomic services to industries through the past 18 years and has worked with a diverse group of clients and their employees, including telecom, automotive, food and beverage, aerospace, retail, office space, and biotech industries.

Her expertise include: results driven training, risk assessments, design guideline consulting, technical analysis with reporting and ergonomic technology solutions for improving work conditions to allow for improved employee performance.

Kristianne's interests include working in manufacturing environments and problem solving as it relates to ergonomics, efficiency and overall health and safety. Outside of work, Kristianne enjoys hiking and camping at National Parks.

LOCATION

Cincinnati, OH